we hear the dead of ages cry-
And all the toiling millions plead:-
How long shall human beings die
To satisfy a nation's greed?

Let Christian nations bear in mind
This world is but a monster school
Where they are set to teach mankind
God's charter law—the Golden Rule.

Can we our conscience justify
While selling savage nations rum?
Is war religion's battle cry?
Shall we serve God with fife and drum?

Let all the ships that plow the sea
The human race still closer bind:
While that proud banner of the free
To world-wide peace leads all mankind.

Let freedom's soaring eagle scare
All warring vultures from the earth
And heavenward all the incense bear
That mothers burn around the hearth.

War's curse is not alone its dead:
What endless grief the battle starts:-
The path of glory heroes tread
Is ever paved with broken hearts.

Let women weep no longer for
Their loved ones slain by man's caprice:
From out the palsied throat of war
There comes the silent prayer for peace.

This war scarred monster seems to say:
War is a nation's only Vice:
Give thou thy fellow man fair play
And make this world a paradise.

War clouds will never mar the sky
When peaceful mortals come to know—
The first to shout the battle cry
Do not themselves to battle go.

Let nations try some wiser scheme,
With world-wide laws to make them just:
A world-empowered Court Supreme
With world-police to say—they must!

Let precious blood no more be shed,
Nor human backs with taxes bend;
Let war have no more tribute dead!
Cries Reason: Let there be an end!
